

Building Bridges or Barriers - a focus for Racial Justice Sunday

Rosie Bairwal, the National Co-ordinator for the Catholic Association for Racial Justice (CARJ) will be the keynote speaker at a service to celebrate Racial Justice Sunday on 12th September 2010.

Rosie will be following the national theme Migration: Building Bridges or Barriers? Rosie has a breadth of experience on this topic both personally and professionally, she has responsibility for leading new initiatives in this area and will offer the opportunity to view this subject within a Christian perspective. The service at 6pm at Christ Church, Newark will include music with The Psalm Drummers, Freddie Kofi, a Gospel Choir and a Gypsy Band.

On Saturday 11th September, there will be a series of workshops at St Judes Church, Mapperley. Running from 10am to 4pm, the workshops are on current issues and include discussion and presentation on: Stop the Traffik, Legal Justice - people seeking sanctuary and refuge, Support Christians in Pakistan, Minority Ethnic Anglicans, Gypsy Traveller Communities, City of Sanctuary, Nottingham African Women Empowerment Forum.

A free lunch of Caribbean and African food will be provided.

Join the 2010 Christmas church ad campaign

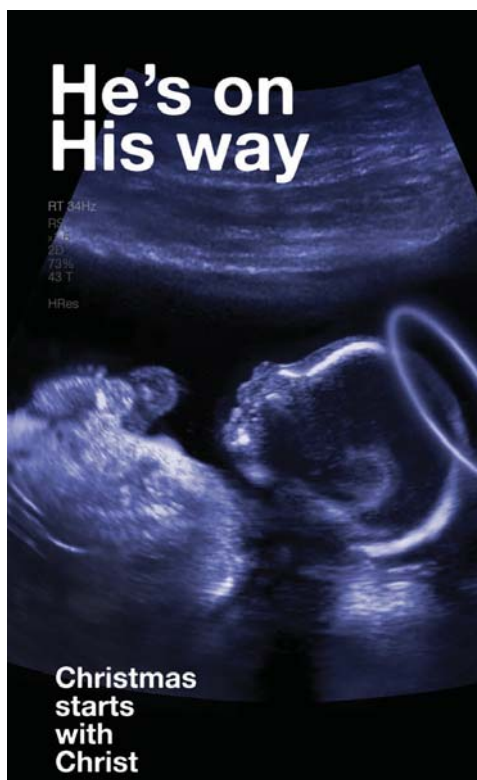

For years churches across the UK have produced posters to promote Christmas, but no one has attempted to run a national campaign, with a long-lasting slogan, that runs and builds year on year. The 'Christmas Starts with Christ' campaign solves this problem. This year's poster is iconic and will speak to our modern culture. In the 21st century, proud parents-to-be often announce the coming birth by showing friends and family the scan of the baby. The 'Baby-scan Jesus' poster uses this convention to place the birth of Christ in an ultra-contemporary context. It is highly impactful; has a sense of immediacy; creates anticipation and, theologically, speaks of both the humanity and divinity of Jesus Christ. There is no doubt that it will capture people's attention; catalyse headlines; and create countless conversations about the true meaning of Christmas. Church leaders across the denominations have welcomed the campaign and are urging churches all over the country to get involved.

Book your poster site now - Churches can buy a two-week display in the run-up to Christmas for £150. You can buy your local bus stop or donate to the national campaign. See the website for easy steps of how to do it, www.ChurchAds.Net

Free resources are available online. www.ChurchAds.Net has materials to download, all free of charge, including posters, artwork and radio ads when available.

Mike Elms (Mike Elms, former CEO of global advertising agency Ogilvy & Mather, and trustee of ChurchAds.Net) said: "Last year over 700 churches, of all denominations participated. So, for the 2010 campaign, we are giving churches the opportunity to book sites now. With your help and God's grace we are praying that we shall be able to secure 2010 poster sites, '2010 in 2010', and have the soon-to-be-revealed radio ads played on 200 stations".

Diocesan Cricket Team

Bishop Paul is keen to see a Diocesan Cricket Team back in action if possible. He will hope to support and play but cannot organise it. So here is his proposal:

1. Names of interested parties – including non-Anglican ministers/youth workers (up to 3 are allowed in a team) to +Paul as soon as possible.
2. Offers of organising – fixtures, teams, nets, etc., also to +Paul who will then hand it over to a secretary and captain.
3. Somewhere out there is some cricket gear - +Paul remembers someone saying they have it but can't remember who!

Please contact +Paul, tel. 01636 811211, or email: bishop@southwell.anglican.org

Tributes to pioneer church worker with love for children

Tributes were paid last month to a 'Pioneer Missioner' for Bestwood Park with Rise Park Church, who died on Wednesday, 11th August 2010, after a life-time dedicated to helping people discover faith.

Mrs Stella Tyers (55) who leaves a husband David, spent many years working in different communities across Nottingham. She qualified as a dietitian in Leeds and later trained as a primary school teacher. Stella originally worked within the NHS but later as a teacher at Seely Infant School (Sherwood), Robin Hood Infant School (Bestwood Park), Southwark Primary School (Basford) and in Nottingham Prison.

The Bishop of Southwell & Nottingham, the Rt Revd Paul Butler, said: "Stella Tyers was an outstanding person whose life spoke of the love of Jesus to all whom she met. Her ministry in Bestwood was excellent. Our love and prayers are with David in his loss."

Both Stella and David were involved in a number of church projects over the years. Stella was a mentor on a lay discipleship programme run by the Diocese of Southwell & Nottingham, a mentor for the Education for Ministry Programme in the UK and they

From the Bishop of Southwell and Nottingham To the people of Southwell and Nottingham Diocese

Dean of Women's Ministry

As many of you will know the Reverend Ruth Worsley will be leaving the diocese in the autumn to take up her new appointment as Parish Development Adviser for the Woolwich Episcopal Area in the Diocese of Southwark. We give thanks for Ruth and her work in the DWM role as well as the other parts of her ministry in the diocese.

I have decided this time round to make another appointment to the post of Dean of Women's Ministry. The role will include working with women and men in supporting women in ordained ministry, encouraging vocations and being a full member of the Bishop's Senior Staff Team.

If you have any suggestions of people who could be appointed to this role and the reasons why, and any other reflections on the role, could you please write to me or email me at bishop@southwell.anglican.org by 24 September 2010.

Many thanks
In fellowship
+Paul

Roger to cycle 'Pilgrim Route' for Time Travelling

Local town Councillor Roger Dobson is turning 70 this year, and to mark the milestone, he has undertaken to cycle 500km of the pilgrim route to Santiago de Compostela in Spain during September of this year, kindly offering to donate his sponsorship money to Time Travelling.

To sponsor Roger, go to his just giving page at <http://www.justgiving.com/roger-santiago> where you can sponsor him by using your credit card. Just Giving will collect your gift aid too, if you're eligible.

If giving online is not possible, sponsorship is can be done through the post. Contact: Diana Ives / Emma Anderton 01636 817287.

More stewards needed for Southwell Minster

Members of the Southwell Minster Guild of Stewards provide a ministry of welcome to the thousands of visitors who come, from all parts of the globe, to visit this unique place, the "best-kept secret" amongst English Cathedrals. All members are volunteers, welcoming each visitor with a smile and a personal word. They provide visitors with information, find out where they are from and if they have come especially to see a particular aspect of the building, draw their attention to all the "must-see" features, and answer any questions they may have. Treating each visitor as an individual, the Minster Stewards try to make their visit a memorable one.

To help with this important work, the Guild now needs to recruit more members.

If you are interested in joining, please contact David Turner (details below). After joining, you would be given a detailed induction and attend a comprehensive training programme, before shadowing an experienced Steward in the first instance. The Stewards are a very friendly group and have monthly get-togethers, social events and occasional outings.

Pray for those who call for justice

Link Officer, Barbara Holbrook writes:

In July we told you of a visit from Bishop Rubin as he was visiting the UK supporting the work of Abahlali (a Shack Dwellers Movement). Their web page contains the following update:

Over the past months we have continued to receive strong support for our intention to convene an independent Commission of Enquiry into the awful violence that was visited on the shack settlement of Kennedy Road in September 2009. Only such an enquiry will really help us all sift truth from lies, and establish a full picture of the events and their ongoing aftermath, as well as the full context and implications of what has happened. From community organisations and senior church leadership in this country, to community-based organisations in London and justice groups in congregations in Scotland, to senior international figures in the churches and the human rights scene, we have been moved and encouraged by their commitment to and active interest in finding the truth. These developments, together with the extraordinary support and wise counsel of many we are working with on the matter, keep us resolute and confident. Confident not only that the Commission process will happen but that when it does, it will deliver an outcome of unquestionable integrity. The necessary groundwork to facilitate the Commission's work is under way...

It was Abahlali baseMjondolo that first called for the full and independent commission of enquiry into these attacks. They said such an enquiry should: "in the interests of justice and truth, carefully and fairly investigate the actions of everyone, including the local and provincial ANC, the police, the intelligence services, the prosecutors, the courts and our movement, its various sub-committees and our supporters".

As the shack dwellers await the Commission, they still live in the poverty of the Shacks. At this time of year (Winter in South Africa) it is cold. Without electricity the families build fires and have ovens to keep them warm. Unfortunately, this leads to many incidents of shack fires, destroying what little shelter the families have and leaving more people homeless and destitute. Because of the debate over the rights to the land, the government are reluctant to bring such amenities to the homes.

Please pray for all those who live in the Shacks, for those arrested in the violence and all those who speak out for the dispossessed and call for justice.

were also both active members of St Andrew's Church in Nottingham. It was while they were there that Stella became involved in the Jericho Road Project, reaching out to women on the streets. As a dietitian she was concerned about their diet too, and used to take fresh fruit to hand out to them during the evening, along with other essentials.

Through teaching and children's work at churches, Stella's passion for sharing faith with children shone out. In her most recent post as Pioneer Missioner in Bestwood Park & Rise Park, she helped raise some £10,000 to set up a special youth and children's facility at the church. Associate Priest, the Revd Canon Dr Nigel Rooms, who worked alongside Stella most recently, said: "She had an incredible heart for people and for knowing about God and that just shone out of her. Her role included working with children and young people and families and particularly networking in the schools to help people re-connect with the church. She did some fantastic creative work with the children and was an inspiration to us all."

Stella became ill in January 2009 but continued to be actively involved in the parish until very recently.
