

ST PETER'S CHURCH, NOTTINGHAM

(next to Marks and Spencer)

COFFEE BREAK CONCERTS

All concerts start at 11am and last for one hour

Coffee & biscuits available from 10.15am · Admission free, with donations welcome

Saturday 4th February

Nottingham Baroque Soloists

The series starts with a welcome return to St Peter's by the Nottingham Baroque Soloists, in a performance including music by Lassus, Schütz and Bach.

Saturday 11th February

Martin Jacoby, piano

Excellent local pianist, and recent graduate of the Royal Northern College of Music, Martin Jacoby gives a recital of piano music to include Beethoven's fabulous "Waldstein" sonata.

Saturday 18th February

The Keats String Quartet

We welcome the Keats String Quartet from Trinity College of Music, London, to perform a programme including music by Alexander Borodin.

Saturday 25th February

Mirabilé Ladies Choir

Local ladies ensemble Mirabilé make their St Peter's debut with a varied programme including excerpts from Pergolesi's Stabat Mater.

"Third Thursday" Organ Recitals

Coming up...

19th January: Hilary Punnett (Southwell Minster)

16th February: Lee Rooke (St Peter's, Nottingham)

15th March: Andrew Teague (formerly St Peter's, Nottingham and Bradford Cathedral)

Thursday recitals start at 1.15pm, and last for half an hour. Admission is free.

Holy Communion (BCP) is held at 11am, and the Coffee Room is open 10.30am - 2pm.